

LEX Reception

$250 off first month of service

Terms & Conditions

The Promotional Terms & Conditions below apply in addition to LEX Reception's standard Terms & Conditions of Service.

The promotion qualifies any new LEX Reception customer who is a member of the California Lawyers Association for $250 off their first month of service.

During the first month promotion period, any overages of minutes used outside the plan and any add-ons will be charged at LEX Reception's standard rate, based on the chosen plan [up to $2.25 per additional minute].

The $250 discount will apply, even if there are changes made during the first month of service [downgrading or upgrading the plan].

At the end of the one-month promotion period, it is the customer's responsibility to adjust their plan should they wish to do so. If the plan is not adjusted manually, the plan will revert to the standard pricing for the minute plan that they signed up on.

The promotion is not open to existing LEX Reception clients.

The promotion is not valid in conjunction with any other promotion.

The promotion may be withdrawn, suspended, or amended at any time by LEX Reception.

LEX Reception reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions for new sign-ups at any time without prior notice.
